

DON WISE
Co-Director

Don Wise has over twenty years of experience in nonprofit administration and community leadership. He is currently the Co-Director of The Coro Kansas City Internship in Public Affairs, a partnership with Park University's Hauptmann School for Public Affairs, and is the former director of the Civic Leadership Training Council of Wyandotte County, in Kansas City, Kansas.

Mr. Wise has a Master's Degree in Adaptive Education from Ohio State University and is a Fellow at both the University of Missouri-Kansas City's Midwest Center for Nonprofit Leadership and at the Hauptmann School of Public Affairs at Park University, where he has designed and now teaches a variety of graduate level courses in community and nonprofit leadership.

