

12th Annual Leadership Luncheon

Countdown to Leadership Luncheon XII -- Friday May 4th!

Next Friday hundreds of leaders from all over the Bay Area and beyond will converge at the San Francisco Marriott to celebrate Coro and effective leadership. The exciting line-up includes guest speaker Andy Stern, President of the Service Employees International Union; Crystal Eagle award for Community Service recipient Dede Wilsey, fundraising champion and President of the Trustees of the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco; and Lifetime Leadership Awardee Shirley Breyer Black, a San Francisco labor, education and civic legend.

Scott Shafer, Coro Board Chair and host of KQED's California Report will again emcee. We are delighted to have this opportunity to introduce the community to Jeffrey Sosnaud, an alumnus of the Fellows Program in Public Affairs and Coro's new Executive Director. Representatives of the Exploring Leadership program for high school juniors and the Fellows Program in Public Affairs will also share moments of their Coro journeys.

Don't miss this very special event! Go to www.coro.org/luncheon now for more information or to register. Registration can also be done via email to coronocal@coro.org or phone to 415.986.0521 x107.
