

Ian Barlow, FPPA SF '99, is an attorney at Wexler Wallace LLP in Sacramento, CA.

Diane Bisgeier, CLP '02, recently joined Soar BioDynamics as its director of product marketing.

A. Marisa Chun, FPPA LA '88, has been tapped as Deputy Associate Attorney General for the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. Marisa has been a partner at the San Francisco law firm of Coblenz, Patch, Duffy & Bass.

Lisa Cole, FPPA SF '01, was recently promoted to associate director of grants administration and research operations manager at the Public Policy Institute of California. She and husband Nima Rezainia look forward to their daughter Zoya's first birthday on May 14, 2009. The family resides in Berkeley, CA.

Aristotle Evia, FPPA LA '97, was sworn in as an Assistant Attorney General in the Office of the Attorney General in Washington, D.C. on April 13.

Pamela Livingston, CLP '04, received her Master's degree in Humanities with a focus in creative writing at Dominican University of California. Her master's thesis earned her an invitation to speak at the international Graduate Humanities Symposium at Stanford University last summer, and is the basis for her current labor of love, writing her first historic fiction novel.

Jesse Mainardi, CLP '03, and wife Vivian Kwok became first-time parents on October 10, 2008 with the birth of their son, Ben.

Anna Van Degna, CLP '05, was recently promoted to public finance group vice president at Stone & Youngberg LLC in San Francisco.

Wendy Wu, EL '07, and Lirio Zepeda, EL '07, have both been selected as Gates Millenium Scholars by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. They are two of 1,000 college bound students who will receive scholarships and additional support and resources over the next ten years.