

Nick Dietz, EL '06, is the Senior Class President at Stuart Hall in San Francisco.

Danice Delos Santos, EL '07, was elected Junior Class President at Burton High School in San Francisco.

Betty Feng, FPPA '06 SF, is in her last year at George Washington University working on her Masters in Public Policy. She was a 2007 Summer Associate at Deloitte Consulting in their Federal practice, and is currently interning with EMILY's List and volunteering on the Hillary Clinton campaign.

Beth Flores, FPPA '99 SF, is in her third year working at the U.S. Pentagon in the Office of the Secretary of Defense where she is currently responsible for the Proliferation Security Initiative, an effort by over 85 countries to impede or stop the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and related materials.

Sarah Fox, FPPA '03 SF, resides in Portland, Oregon where she is involved in a variety of pursuits. She is an associate producer for Oregon Public Broadcasting and was chosen to work on a documentary due to air in April 2008 on invasive species. She is a jeweler and a Gallery Artist for the Museum of Contemporary Crafts in Portland. Sarah was chosen as a 2008 American Craft Council Searchlight Artist for her jewelry—one of just 25 artists selected in the country. She also works in marketing for a Portland architecture firm, Mahlum Architects, where the work is focused in the public sector, specifically healthcare and education projects.

Tarana Harris, FPPA '99 SF, recently moved from ABC News in Atlanta to become a producer in its Los Angeles bureau. She reports she is happy to be back on the West Coast.

Alexandra Cespedes Kent, CLP '03, after an impressive and multi-faceted career with Coro SF serving as director of the youth program, the part-time adult program and the UCSF/Coro faculty initiative, has gone on to become the Associate Director of the Purpose Prize at Civic Ventures in San Francisco. We wish her all the best and look forward to her continued involvement in Coro.

Letitia Henderson-Souza, MSW, FPPA '05 SF, recently joined Casey Family Programs as a Community Specialist working with youth who are transitioning out of foster care and helping them achieve self-sufficiency.

Gloria Louie, CF '92, is the Equal Employment Opportunity and Training Programs Director of the San Francisco Airport Commission. She continues to do much work in the employee Civil Rights area.

Megan Miller, FPPA '07 SF, recently started as a Northern California Field Representative for Senator Barbara Boxer in San Francisco. Her region encompasses seven counties in Northern California.